PETITIONING THE COURTTo issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.Supporting Evidence: On June 12, 2016, the U.S. Probation Office in Spokane received an automated inquiry providing notification to the agency that Mr. Chavez' name had been run by law enforcement in Connell, Washington. A police report was requested on the contact, and received on June 13, 2016. It was learned that on June 12, 2016, an assault occurred in Connell. The resulting investigation concluded that Mr. Chavez was a suspect in the assault, and his apprehension is actively being sought by law enforcement.

The report further elaborates on the assault, and uses witness testimony to substantiate the allegations. Witnesses were later able to identify Mr. Chavez when presented with a photo montage. The report concluded that probable cause exists at this time for the arrest of Mr. Chavez. It should be noted that the alleged victim is an 18-year-old high school student, and that both Mr. Chavez and his brother, Mr. Alfredo Chavez, were identified as having participated in the assault on the victim. The police report recommends charges of Fourth Degree Assault, a violation of R.C.W. 9A.36.041, a Gross Misdemeanor, and Harassment, in violation of 9A.46.020. Under state law Mr. Chavez could be charged with either a Class C Felony, or a Gross Misdemeanor contingent upon the specific type of harassment cited upon arrest.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender to answer the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
